JUVENILE COURT OVERVIEW

This report is the sixtieth in a series of juvenile court statistics, and the twenty-sixth published under the direction of the Division of Youth Services (DYS) and the Department of Social Services' Research and Evaluation Unit, as mandated by Section 219.036.4, RSMo. This report presents the summary statistics of Missouri's juvenile court system for calendar year 2004.

The numbers presented in this report are not individual children, but separately disposed court referrals. A referral is defined as "any action involving a juvenile which results in a determination, finding, or outcome and a written record maintained in the juvenile's name." A disposed referral is one which has resulted in a "finding" or "outcome."

Examples of findings and outcomes include the following: Court Adjudication, Informal Adjustment, Transfer to Other Court, and Rejection of Referral.

Throughout this report, the term "referral" means "disposed referral."

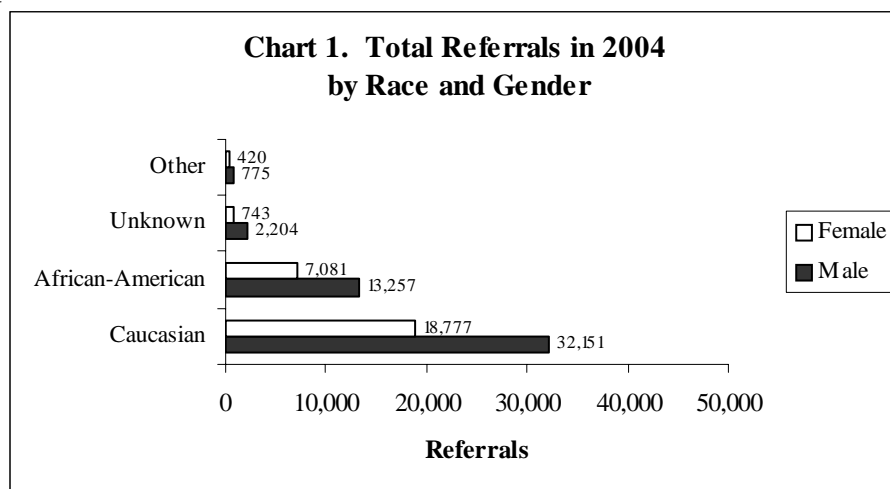

In calendar year 2004, Missouri's 45 juvenile courts disposed 75,408 referrals. This is a 14% decrease from the high point of 87,340 in 2001 and a 2% decrease from 2003 alone.

Table 1. Annual Referrals
Year	Referrals
2000	84,910
2001	87,340
2002	80,381
2003	76,927
2004	75,408

NOTE: The number of children represented by these referrals can not be accurately reported due to inconsistencies in identification systems from circuit to circuit. Therefore, an unduplicated statewide count of individual children is not available.

Race and Gender Comparisons

Chart 1 shows the gender and racial breakdown of all referrals in 2004. Males made up the larger portion in each racial grouping. Overall, males made up 64% of all referrals, while females made up 36%. Caucasian youth comprised 68% of the referral population, African-American youth comprised 27%, and 5% of referrals were of other races or unknown.

Referral Types

Referrals to Missouri's juvenile courts break down into five categories:

Law Violations:	Acts which would be in violation of the Missouri Criminal Code if they were committed by an adult.
Status Violations:	Acts which are violations only if committed by a juvenile. These include such infractions as truancy and running away from home.
Abuse, Neglect, Custody: (A/N/C)	Reports of Missouri children who were victims of abuse or neglect, and children involved in custody disputes, transfers, or terminations of parental rights.
Court Order Violations:	Reported referrals of violations of court orders.
Municipal, Juvenile:	Referrals for juvenile municipal violations, such as smoking in a public place and curfew violations. Prior to 2001, these referrals were reported in the Status and Administrative categories.

Table 2 shows the breakdown of all referrals into the appropriate referral categories over the past ten years. As in the past, the Law Violation category contained the most referrals, at 55%.

Table 2. Juvenile Court Referral Statistics: 1995 - 2004

2004	41,249	14,523	855	1,878	16,903	75,408

* The definition for Court Order Violation changed in 2001. It was previously called the Administrative category and consisted of court order violations and miscellaneous municipal juvenile charges.

 The Municipal, Juvenile category is effective with 2001 reporting. See above definition.

 The definition for Status Offense reporting changed in 1994 to include curfew violations and changed again in 2001 to remove curfew violations, which are now tracked in the Municipal, Juvenile category.

Referral Trends

Chart 2 illustrates the change in total referrals, by category, over the past ten years.

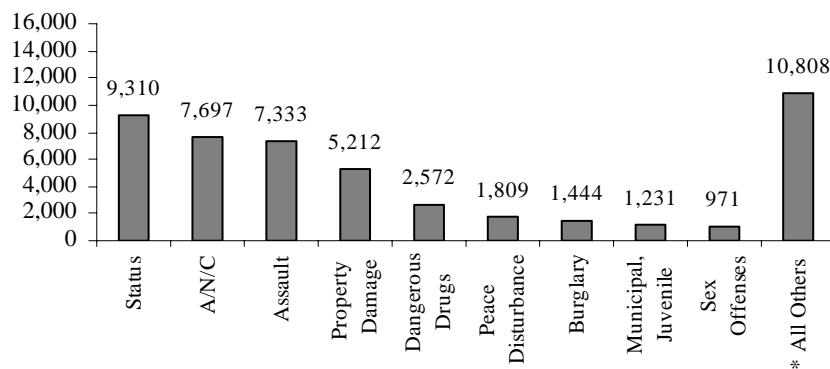

Referral Sources

Referrals to the Missouri juvenile court system can come from many sources. In 2004, 61% of all referrals were initiated by law enforcement. As in the past, more than half of the abuse, neglect and custody referrals were initiated by the Department of Social Services' Children's Division (CD). Status offense referrals were more likely to be made by schools or municipal police. The juvenile courts, county sheriffs and parents were also the initiators of large numbers of referrals. Table 3 shows the sources of all referrals to the Missouri juvenile courts.

Most Common Major Allegations

Chart 3. Most Common Major Allegation in 2004: Male

Charts 3 and 4 illustrate the most common major allegations, by gender, for referrals disposed in 2004. While all law violations added together account for the most referrals overall, when examining categories of referrals by gender, status offenses contained more referrals for both males and females. There were many abuse, neglect and custody referrals, as well.

Chart 4. Most Common Major Allegation in 2004: Female

The incidence of law violation referrals among females was much lower than law violation referrals for males.

* The top nine referral reasons for each gender are listed. "All Others" totals the remaining reasons for referral.

Disposition of Referrals

After a youth has been referred to a juvenile court, a formal judgment or informal decision is made about how to handle the case. The possible determinations or outcomes fall into two categories: (1) those that are handled formally with a petition to the court, and (2) those that are informally adjusted outside of the court.

The formal dispositions are:

True, Out-of-Home:	The allegation is found to be true and the youth is placed out of his or her home. The placement may be with the Division of Youth Services, a foster home, a relative, or some other agency.
True, In-Home:	The allegation is found to be true and the youth receives services in his or her own home.
True, No Services:	The allegation is found to be true, but the youth receives no services.
Not True:	The allegation is found to be not true.
Motion to Dismiss:	The court sustains a motion to dismiss and the case is closed.
Dismiss for Certification:	The court sustains a motion to dismiss and the case is transferred to an adult criminal court to be processed under the criminal code.

The informal dispositions are:

Adjust without Supervision:	No more than one face-to-face contact is made between court personnel and the juvenile. This usually results in the giving of advice, counsel or a verbal warning.
Adjust with Supervision:	Either a verbal or written agreement is made to put the juvenile under court supervision. This usually includes some sort of restitution or community service.
Adjust - No Action:	No action is taken by the juvenile officer other than the collection of information.
Transfer to Other Juvenile Court:	Jurisdiction over the juvenile is transferred to another juvenile court for disposition.
Transfer to Other Agency:	The youth's case record is turned over to another agency for disposition.
Referral Rejected:	No reason is found to sustain the referral.

The dispositions of referrals to Missouri juvenile courts are shown in Chart 5. In 2004, 75% of all referrals were informally disposed.

Charts 6 and 7 show the outcomes of formally and informally disposed referrals. Without supervision, in the informal category, was the finding for the largest number of referrals.

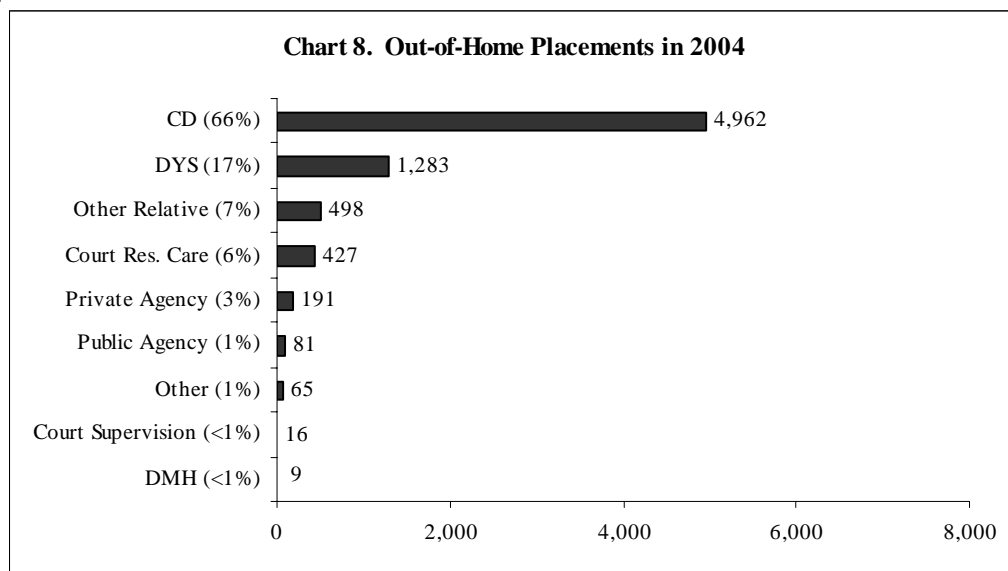

Formal dispositions accounted for 25% of all referral outcomes. Percentages for formal and informal referrals remain the same as in 2003.

A total of 7,532 referrals were placed out-of-home in 2004. The Children's Division received 66% of these placements. Another 17% of the placements were made to DYS. Other placement categories include: court residential care, relatives other than parents, private agencies, or public agencies.

Chart 8 shows the distribution of out-of-home placements.

In-home services can be ordered by the court or provided informally by court personnel. In-home services were provided for 14,438 referrals in 2004 (formal and informal). Juvenile court personnel supervised 84% of these in-home service cases. (Chart 9.)

Certifications to Adult Court

In 2004, there were 130 referrals dismissed from the juvenile courts to allow certification to adult court. Table 4 shows the number of dismissed referrals by age and race.

Pre-Hearing Placements

At the time of a referral, a juvenile may be detained awaiting a determination. Two types of facilities are used for detention: secure and non-secure. During 2004, 11,108 referrals were detained prior to hearing. Males comprised 63% of all placements, and they were more likely to be detained in secure facilities. Table 5 provides a breakdown of detainees by category and gender.

There are several types of facilities in which non-secure placements may be made: Foster Home, Group Home, Institution or Facility, Relative, and Other. In 2004, as in past years, the largest portion of these placements was made to the foster home category. Chart 10 details the percentage of placements into the different categories.

Chart 10. Non-Secure Pre-Hearing Placements in 2004:
Type of Facility

Chart 11 shows the operators of the non-secure facilities. The operators of a facility can be: the Children's Division (CD), the Department of Mental Health (DMH), Juvenile Court, City or County Government, Private Agency, Relative, or Other. The CD was the operator of the facilities in 48% of the disposed referrals that had a non-secure placement in 2004.

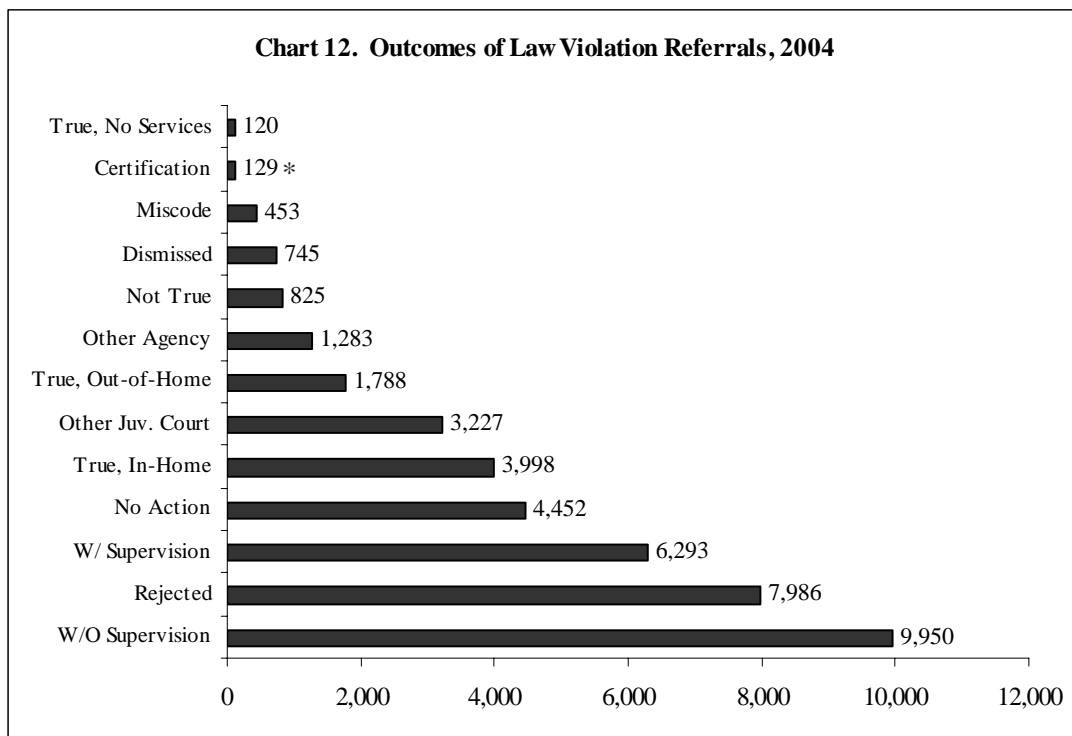

LAW VIOLATION REFERRALS

Law violation referrals (41,249) made up 55% of all referrals to the juvenile court system in 2004. A law violation represents a single delinquent act, even though several offenses may have been committed at the same time by the child referred. The most serious violation that resulted in a final disposition is recorded as the major allegation for the referral.

Law Violation Outcomes

Chart 12 depicts the outcomes of all law referrals. Informal adjustment without supervision accounted for 24% of all law violation outcomes. Informal adjustments accounted for 80% of law violation referrals.

Table 6. Average Prior Law Violations

Prior Violations

The average number of prior law violations per referral varies greatly among different violations. Referrals for Burglary, Flight/Escape, and Stolen Property are shown to have some of the highest incidences of prior allegations. (Table 6.)

Age Distribution of Law Violators

As was the case in 2003, 49% of all the law violation referrals in 2004 were 15- and 16-year-old youths. This age group was most likely to be referred for assault, stealing, property damage, or dangerous drugs. This same pattern can be seen among most of the age groups.

STATUS OFFENSE REFERRALS

Status Offense Outcomes

As in past years, most status offense referrals during 2004 were handled informally. See Chart 13 for a breakdown of numbers in the various referral categories.

Status offenses are those offenses that are not considered violations if committed by adults. In 2004, status offenses accounted for 22% of all referrals. The category with the largest number of referrals was “Behavior Injurious to Self/Others” which had 4,613. “Absent from Home” was the only category in which the number of female referrals outnumbered the male referrals. (Chart 14.)

Status Offense Placements

Pre-hearing placements for status referrals are somewhat rare. Only 9% of 2004 status referrals were detained prior to hearing. Of those juveniles held, 999 (69%) were held in secure facilities, 391 (27%) were held in non-secure facilities, and 59 (4%) were held in both secure and non-secure facilities pending their hearings. (Table 8.)

In 2004, 772 juveniles who were referred for status offenses were placed out-of-home. Table 9 provides a breakdown of placements for status offense referrals.

ABUSE, NEGLECT AND CUSTODY REFERRALS

The abuse, neglect and custody category encompasses a wide range of referral types. Children can be referred because of physical abuse, abandonment, neglect, or because they are involved in custody disputes. A breakdown of all the abuse, neglect and custody referrals is listed in Table 10.

Appendix I: Number of Juveniles Certified to Adult Court by Circuit, Race and Gender

Because not all circuits and counties use unique individual identification numbers, and because two separate circuits might prosecute the same child using different IDs, a true statewide count of the number of children certified can not be accurately found. The numbers on this table have been unduplicated to represent individual children within the circuit.
